How Mosquitoes Bite. - The mosquito has a proboscis like an elephant, only not so large. It will, however, look nearly as large under a good microscope. He cannot do as many handy things with it as the elephant can with his, but he can cause a good deal of annoyance in a small way with it. It is hardly the thing to say that the mosquito bites us, for he has no teeth. The microscope reveals the fact that he carries a pair of scissors inside his proboscis—the neatest and sharpest little cutting tools you ever saw. He gets his living by these. They are two delicate little blades, and are placed along-side of each other. When he gets ready to make a meal off of us, he first buzzes around with those beautiful wings and sings a pleasant little song. If we let him quietly set tle down, he picks out a place on our skin which is just to his liking. He is very delicate about it. When he gets ready he puts his proboscis down and pushes the little scissors out, and makes a neat cut, so that he can suck the blood out. Then he drinks as much blood as he wants, and is done his dinner. But he does not leave yet. He is going to pay his bill. He has taken our blood, and he will leave us something in exchange for it. With all his faults, he is an honest little fellow—after his fashion. He has the pay in his pocket, ready to squeeze out before he goes. It is poison, but that makes no difference to him. It is the best he has to give us. His poison pocket is at the head of his proboscis and at the lower end of his proboscis he has another little pocket, into which he puts poison enough for one dose. This poison is very powerful. A very prompt attention.

| Condens from the country respectfully solicited, and all orders shall receive our prompt attention. little makes the place where the mosquito puts it very sore. After he has sucked our blood, he puts the drop of poison into the place he took the blood from. It is not the bite or cut that the mosquito makes that hurts, but the dropping of this powerful poison into our flesh. If this mosquito were large enough to give a powerful dose of this poison, it would be bad for us. It he were as big as a kitten, and his poison strong in proportion, a bite from him

LEGAL NOTICES.

IN THE CIRCUIT COURT OF FAIRFAX county: M. D. Ball and others vs. D. H. Ball and others: In chancery. In vacation. August 10, 1871.

It was adjudged, ordered and decreed that one of the Commissioners of this Court do take the following accounts: 1st. That he ascertain when W. W. Ball, Lucy W. Ball and Martha C. Ball, departed this life, and what heirs they left respectively, and who are now the heirs of the said parties respectively, and in what degree or portion. 2d. That he ascertain the debts of each, the said W. W. Ball, and Lucy W. Ball, and Martha C. Ball, and also of S. M. Ball, deceased, and what debts are charged on their respective and what debts are charged on their respective lands, with the priority of said debts, and any matters in relation thereto; and for this purpose that he convene the creditors of said W. W. Ball, Lucy W. Ball, Martha C. Ball and S. M. Ball, by publication, once a week for four consecutive weeks, in the Fairfax News, and in some newspaper published in Alexandria.

2d. That he settle the administration accounts

3d. That he settle the administration accounts of W. H. Dulany, as administrator of S. M. Ball and of M. C. Ball; of M. D. Ball, as administrator of Lucy W. Ball, and of D. H. Ball, as administratrix of W. W. Ball, of which he shall give notice as above; and that he ascertain of what land the said W. W. Ball, Lucy W. Ball and M. C. Ball died seized, and to whom and in what proportions the same should descend, and report his action under this decree, with any other matters deemed pertinent. Ex't. Teste. F. D. RICHARDSON, Clerk.

tember, proximo, I shall proceed to take the several accounts as ordered, when and where they are required to attend, with such proofs and papers as they may desire to have passed upon.
